

Travel + Leisure — July 2012

Thanks to that special southern hospitality, The Willcox feels more like a home than a hotel. Flanked by grand white pillars and big oak trees, it oozes Southern charm. The rooms look like you've just stepped into Scarlett O'Hara's house—four-poster beds, fireplaces, and stitched floral pillows.

Read more ...