

The Aiken Standard — February 2013

Actor Bill Murray was in Aiken last fall and made a stop at The Willcox. Murray didn't stay the night but took a tour of the hotel and spent some time in the Roosevelt suite. Though it wasn't clear at the time, it was later determined that Murray was interested in the suite and the hotel's history because of his role in the new film, "Hyde Park on Hudson" in which he plays 32nd U.S. President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Read more ...