Juilliard in Aiken

Juilliard in Aiken is a weeklong event of public performances, chamber concerts, master classes and educational outreach to area schools — a gift to the community that debuted in March 2009, when The Juilliard School joined with our city to create a one-of-a-kind celebration of the arts. Ours is the first and only community in the world with which Juilliard has partnered to create a festival of this magnitude, and our residents are forever grateful. This package truly is a bucket list opportunity. Stay tuned for future 2014 performance dates.
