

Amy, a lifetime resident of Aiken, has worked in the spa industry for 10 years. In 2003, she attended the South Carolina Massage and Esthetics Institute, and while working in Virginia Beach, Va., for a medical spa, she became interested in skincare. That led to training at the Virginia Institute of Esthetics in 2007. She is nationally certified.